Welcome Commercial Exhibitors

The BVX 2017 preparation is underway. Exhibition dates are August 24st – 27th.

THEME: “Party Till the Cows Come Home at the 98th BVX!”

Returning exhibitors are given preference to book the same booth as last year. You must reserve your booth before March 1st with an email confirmation and by April 1st with a completed application and payment. We are having lots of inquiries from new vendors, so book your booth today!

New vendor applications will be considered after the March 1st email deadline for returning vendors.

All applications new and returning must be fully completed along with payment to be considered. New applications received will be confirmed in order, as received.

The Bulkley Valley Exhibition gives your company great exposure and marketing potential with access to over 17,000 exhibition participants coming through the gates. The halls, mall and ground areas will open on Thursday at 1:00 pm.

You may pick up your pass package at our office on Tuesday or Wednesday. Please note the set up times in the information package attached.

Should you require any assistance or further information, please contact our office.

See you at the Fair!

Sincerely,

Jan McClary
